 Editor's Note:

The Public Libraries Act, s. 15(5) allows the Carlow/Mayo Public Library Board to combine the office of secretary, treasurer and CEO. A library does not have to follow this model. Instead, a board may choose to appoint different people to the office of secretary and/or treasurer. If these positions are to be assigned to individuals that are not appointed by the council as part of the appointments to the board, their terms of reference should include the length of the term, set out when the board makes the appointments, and should indicate that the officers are non-voting members of the board (because they have not been appointed by council).
